sculptor and architect bernini was last of the great geniuses who had made italy the artistic centre of europe for over three hundred years bent on pushing the resources of marble structure to their extremity he gave a new lifelike quality to his portraits catching the more animated and spontaneous expression of his models and bringing an innovative treatment to such traditional subjects as david innovative too was his aim to make sculpture part of a larger conception and to link it with its architectural surroundings his most famous work of this type is the ecstasy of st teresa which in its place in the cornaro chapel has a breathtakingly beautiful even visionary quality howard hibbard s excellent and uncluttered study traces the evolution of this all embracing artistic vision together with the lavish illustrations it is an important contribution to the understanding of the age of baroque and one of its greatest artists

a remarkable heartfelt beautifully written analysis of the late work of major artists which author max porter has called completely and utterly marvelous in 2020 as the spread of covid 19 caused pandemonium worldwide a painter and writer returned to a childhood home to reflect upon the transcendence of nature and the work of the artists he most admires it seems to christopher neve that in their final works their late style that they have something remarkable in common this has more to do with intuition and memory than with rationality or reason immortal thoughts late style in a time of plague is an anthology of these reflections in this personal and moving account nineteen short essays on artists are interspersed with recollections of the cataclysmic global progress of the disease in poignant contrast to the beauty of the seasons in neve s isolated house and garden from paul cézanne and michelangelo to rembrandt and gwen john neve dwells on artists late ideas memories risks and places in the context of time and mortality as much art history as a discussion of great art in the context of the dance of death neve also writes about pierre bonnard giorgio morandi nicolas poussin chaim soutine and many others immortal thoughts is a summary of a lifetime s contemplation of art the brilliantly expressive clay models created by gian lorenzo bernini 1598 1680 as sketches for his works in marble offer extraordinary insights into his creative imagination although long admired the terracotta models have never been the subject of such detailed examination this publication presents a wealth of new discoveries including evidence of the artist s fingerprints imprinted on the clay resolving lingering issues of attribution while giving readers a vivid sense of how the artist and his assistants fulfilled a steady stream of monumental commissions essays describe bernini s education as a modeler his approach to preparatory drawings his use of assistants and the response to his models by 17th century collectors extensive research by conservators and art historians explores the different types of models created in bernini s workshop richly illustrated bernini transforms our understanding of the sculptor and his distinctive and fascinating working methods publisher s website in this beautifully written book drury an anglican priest and theologian looks at religious paintings through the ages and presents them in a fresh way as works filled with passion stories and meaning 100 illustrations 70 in color
